Glo. Then be it so : and goe wee to determine who they shall be that straight shall post to Ludlow?
Maddam and you my mother will you goe,
To giue your sensures in this weighty businesse.
Ans. With all our hearts. Exeunt manet Glo. Buck.
Buc. My Lord, who euer Iourneyes to the Prince,
For Gods sake let not vs two be behinde :
For by the way Ile sort occasion,
As index to the story we lately talkt off,
To part the Queenes proud kindred from the King,
Glo. My other selfe, my counsels consistory
My Oracle, my prophet, my deere Cosen:
I like a child will goe by thy direction :
Towards Ludlow then for we will not stay behinde. Exit.

Enter two Citizens.

1. Neighbour well met, whither away so fast?
2. I promise you, I scarcely know my selfe.
1. Heare you the newes abroad?
2. I, that the King is dead.
1. Bat newes birlady, seldome comes better,
I feare, I feare twill proue a troublesome world. Enter ano-
3. Cit. Good morrow neighbours.
Doth this newes hould of good King Edwards death?
1. It doth. 3. Then masters looke to see a troublous world.
1. No, no, by Gods grace his sonne shall raigne.
3. Wo to that land thats gouernd by a childe.
2. In him there is hope of gouernment,
That in his sonage, counsell vnder him,
And in his full ripened yeares, himselfe,
No doubt shall then, and till then gouerne well.
1. So stood the case when Harry the sixt was crownd at Paris, but at nine moneths old.
3. Stood the state so; no good my friend not so,
For then this land was famously inricht
With politicke graue counsell : then the King
Had vertuous Vncles to protect his Grace.
2. So hath this, both by the father and mother.
3. Better it were they all came by the father,
Or by the father there were none at all :

For

For emulation now, who shall be ea
Which touch vs all too neere if God
Oh full of danger is the Duke of Gl
And the Queenes kindred haughtie
And were they to be rulde, and not r
This fickly land might solace as bes
2. Come, come, we feare the worst,
3. When clouds appeare, wise men
When greate leaues fall, the winter i
When the sunne sets who doth not l
Vntimely stormes make them expec
All men be well: but if God sort it
Tis more then we deserue, or I expe
1. Truly the soules of men are full
Yea cannot almost reason with a ma
That lookes not heauy and full of fea
3. Before the time of change, still is
By a deuine instinct mens mindes mi
Ensuing dangers as by proofe we see
The waters swell before a boystrous
But leaue it all to God: whether aw
2. We are sent for to the Iustice.
3. And so was I, ile beare you com
Enter Cardinals, Dutches of Yor
Car. Last night I heare they lay at N
At stony-strat-ford will they be to n
To morrow or next day will they b
Dut. I long with all my heart to se
I hope he is much growne since last I
Qu. But I heere no they say my so
Hath ouertane him in growth.
Yor. I mother, but I would not hau
Dut. Why my yong cousen it is g
Yor. Granam, on night as we did
My vncle Riuers talkt how I did gr
More then my brother, I quoth my
Small carbs haue grace, great weed
And since me thinks I would not gr
Because sweete flowers, are slow, and

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE Richard III (STC 22320) LONDON, 1629 THE BRITISH LIBRARY (C.34.k.52)